Dr. Victor Hin-Fai HUNG

Chairman

Hong Kong Society of Endocrinology, Metabolism and Reproduction

RM 321, 3/F, Professorial Block, Queen Mary Hospital, 102 Pokfulam Road, Hong Kong.

Dear Dr. HUNG,

Re: Sponsorship for the American Diabetes Association's (ADA) 84th Scientific Sessions in Orlando, FL. on 21-24 June, 2024

It is our understanding that the captioned physical meeting will be held 21-24 June 2024.

Being one of the leading pharmaceutical companies, Novo Nordisk is committed to support academic and scientific activities in the diabetic and weight control management.

As a token of support, we would like to sponsor 1 doctor from your association to participate the captioned physical meeting. This sponsorship (per doctor) would include:

Item	Estimated Cost (HK$)
Registration fee	8,400
Hotel accommodation (5 nights)	18,000
Round trip air ticket (econ class)	40,000
Total:	66,400

The purpose of the captioned meeting is to provide a platform and opportunity for academic exchanges and education. It is not related to any business conduct or potential business conduct of Novo Nordisk, nor does it attach any conditions that affect fair competition.

Should this sponsorship be acceptable to your association, please let us have your written confirmation of acceptance and name of the nomination. Your written confirmation before 15 March 2024 will be greatly appreciated.

Should you have any query, please do not hesitate to contact Ms. Fion Tsang at +852 2387-0283.

Yours sincerely,

Eve Jiang

General Manager
